october 2019 submission call

Proposals Due: April 30, 2019 • Project Samples Due: July 1, 2019 • Projects Published: September 1, 2019

This is a joint call for both I Like Crochet and I Like Knitting magazine for the October 2019 issues. Both magazines are centered around the idea of "cabin cozy" so this project call is combined. Designers do not have to submit knit and crochet designs. Show us what you've got!

If your project proposal has a unique stitch or quirk, consider writing a photo tutorial to accompany the design. Please include this idea in your project proposal. If you have another article idea, please submit as a separate submission entry.

Deadline: Proposals submission deadline is April 30, 2019. Pattern decisions will be made once all submissions have been received. Please allow several weeks for a response from the due date. Projects due in office July 1, 2019. Projects will be published September 1, 2019.

Compensation/Support

• This varies depending on the size and complexity of the design. Our range is between $150-$450
• Designers are responsible for securing their own yarn support or using your own yarn. We are happy to pass along contact information for companies that have offered yarn support in the past. Please keep all of this in mind when proposing a suggested price for your design.
• We take care of tech editing once we receive the pattern. You are responsible for communicating with our tech editor in a timely manner if she reaches out to you with questions.
• We will handle all photography so the completed projects will need to be sent to our office for a limited period of time. We are not buying any photography. All projects will be returned.

Rights

• We ask for exclusive rights for the first six months, following the pattern's publication date. After that, we ask for rights in perpetuity, so that we may use your project in our site's archives and publications. You, however, are free to re-publish or sell your project as you wish, once the six months are over.

Submission Requirements

Please use our new submission form on our website. Each individual submission attachment should include all of the following as a self-contained document (single page please):
https://www.ilikecrochet.com/submit-your-designs/ and https://www.ilikeknitting.com/submit-your-designs/
• A sketch of your design idea
• A swatch of the proposed stitch work/pattern (if you know the yarn line you want to use, this is extremely helpful! to include!)
• A detailed written description of the project, including any size or shaping information

Submission Themes: Full editorial calendars are available upon request, but here are the types of projects we are looking for this issue. Images are to be used as inspiration only for color palettes and design elements.

Looking forward to all of your lovely submissions! Nicola + Caitlin
